Say Yes Cleveland will partner with Hope Academy Northwest by providing comprehensive resources – including scholarships, support services, mentoring and more – to help many students across the city further their educational ambitions and achievement.

Family Support Specialist: HANW will be given a Family Support Specialist that will be housed in our building daily. The family support specialist will connect students and families with needed services using their post-secondary planning system. The family support specialist will also assist in the following:

1. Develop trusting relationships with students/ families of HANW students and community. Family Support Specialist also work directly with CCDCFS (Cuyahoga County Division of Children and Family Services).
2. Coordinate and collaborates with the family and professionals to develop, oversee, and document service plans, progress indicators and outcomes.
3. Conducts home and family visits with some non-traditional hours required. The FSS will refer families for school- based and community services to meet individualized needs.
4. Coordinates and arranges for child and family services to increase knowledge and access, including food pantries, shelters and agencies that help with other basic needs such as clothing and housing.
5. Works with school SST (Student Support Team)
6. Assist with locating and providing services for truant students.
